

- A highly decorated Lieutenant in the Special Operations Division (S.O.D.) of the Port Authority Police Department Night Operations Commander of the WTC Rescue/ Recovery Teams
- Awarded the highest medal for the W.T.C. 9/11 assault
- Other awards include the 1993 W.T.C. Bombing Medal of Valor for his rescue of school children trapped in a stalled elevator, the Hanratty Medal of Honor, and over fifty police duty medals
- A member of the N.Y.P.D. and New Jersey Honor Legions
- Founded H.E.A.R.T. 9/11, a volunteer team of search and rescue professionals, as another avenue for the W.T.C. recovery workers to heal
- Continues helping workers who suffered injury or trauma during the rescue and recovery operations by maintaining relationships with health organizations such as St. Vincent Medical Centers and Mt. Sinai Hospital
- Co-authored with Bart Davis the book Closure: the Untold Story of Ground Zero, published by Simon and Schuster
- Featured in a Parade Magazine cover story, on leadership at Ground Zero
- Lectured at Georgetown, Rutgers, and Stony Brook Universities

William Keegan

Class of 1973

Inducted 2009